A Remarkable Money Saving Event In Ladies' Men's and Children's Shoes.

Manchester's Finest Shoe Store—Landon P. Jones—sells out to The Meyer Store.

For years Landon P. Jones has catered only to the wearers of good shoes, and he made enough money at it to now engage in the manufacture of trunks, and the imperative necessity of closing his business quickly compelled him to accept The Meyer Store's offer for his stock, especially as they were the only firm within his reach who were willing to bid for a cash consideration and remove the stock instantly. The sale of these shoes started at The Meyer Store Saturday morning, and without exaggeration it has proved the most sensational selling of shoes Richmond has ever known.

Jones' Stock of Men's Shoes Has Been Divided Into Four Lots.

- At $1.98 W. L. Douglas $4 Shoes, and every pair in it—most complete assortments of Jones' $4, $5, and $6 Patent Leathers, Russia Calf, and Vici Tans, Enamel Leathers, and the celebrated Humanic $4 Shoes. All or any of them at a choice of $1.98 a pair.
- At $1.50 Shoes for the most fastidious men—Kangaroo, Cordovan, Box Calf, Tans, Blacks, Lace and Congress, double sole patent broad-toe shoes, broad tread shoes, invisible cork sole shoes, all worth up to $3.50 a pair, and a great many of the small lots of Jones' $4, $5, and $6 Shoes. Every size carried in usual shoe stocks, for $1.50 a pair.
- At $1.25 Some of the very highest grades of Hand-Sewed Congress Gaiter and Lace Shoes, broad toes and broad breads, which have a commercial value of upwards of three dollars and a half. Many a knowing man will buy shoes for a year to come from this lot at $1.25 a pair.
- At $1.00 Every pair of Shoes which Jones sold from two dollars up-wards not in the other lots. Some hand-sewed, some kangaroo, some calf, some Congress, and some laced. All and any at $1 a pair.

Jones' Stock of Ladies' and Misses' Shoes Divided Into Four Lots.

- At 50c You may pick from hundreds of pairs of Shoes which Jones sold from $1 to $3.50 a pair. Of course the two dollar to three dollar and a half qualities are not the latest styles, but the qualities are there and that's what tells in the wear.
- At 75c You can pick from the most stylish of Jones' Shoes which sold up to two dollars a pair, and the majority of them are shoes of the past season.
- At $1.00 You can pick from Hand-Sewed Shoes in most excellent and up-to-date styles—many common-sense shoes; many medium and broad-toe shoes.
- At $1.50 You can pick from the very cream of Jones' stock, and the greater portion of his stock were shoes from two dollars and a half to five dollars. We say emphatically one dollar and a half at this sale will buy as fine a pair of shoes as anybody could want.

Twice a year—March and September—we make a complete change of samples in the furniture show-room; but we sell out the old samples before we put in the new. You will not need a cent of cash, because we will lay aside anything you select until you are ready to pay for it. This sale embraces mostly one piece of a kind, and the prices are reduced to such an extent as to usually close out the entire line in a few days.
